I host a talk show on 4 radio stations in Connecticut and over the past several years, have invited Lisa Zaccheo to be my show's resident expert on hypnosis and hypnotherapy. Her personality and delivery of information struck a positive chord with my listeners each time she was on-air with me.

A few listeners recently asked if I might be able to secure her as a guest speaker for one of my Girl's Night Out events that I've done bi-monthly for 5 years. Lisa agreed, and spoke to a sold-out crowd at my event in May, 2010.

While I had known and worked with her on my show, I hadn't had the opportunity and true pleasure to see her give a presentation to a crowded room. I was rather blown away.

Lisa's charm, eloquence and sincerity come across naturally. Her professional expertise and style of delivery adds to her appeal. As strong and polished as she is on-air, her in-person presentation takes her to an even higher level.

I highly and enthusiastically recommend Lisa as a keynote speaker, media guest, and hypnosis expert.
